Tysheka Long (a.k.a. Spoken), who conceived, organized, and hosts this event, writes: "This is not your usual poetry reading: it's a show with a beat, pulsing with spoken word and musical rhythms. This night will challenge your definition of a poetry reading." Performers will include Black Magic, Howard Smith, Lonnie Harrell, Ntare Ali Gault, Priscilla Parker-Hill, Rain Bethel-Cooper, & Wise Mecca/vonetta t. rhodes. Tickets will be available at the door or in advance at Locust Street Neighborhood Art Classes. Call 852-4562 or 445-8918.

Wed., Sept. 13 • 7:30 P.M.

Earth's Daughters Collective presents
The Gray Hair Reading Series
Emanuel Fried & Gary Earl Ross
FREE

This free monthly series of poetry and prose readings, conceived and organized by ryki zuckerman will showcase distinguished local writers who have long contributed to Buffalo's literary life. The series (which will continue monthly on the second Wednesday of each month) kicks off with the double bill of playwright, novelist, and actor Emanuel Fried and writer and playwright Gary Earl Ross, both reading from their own prose.

Earth's Daughters magazine—the oldest continuously published feminist literary arts periodical in the U.S.—is currently celebrating its 35th year. This series is co-sponsored by Hallwalls, Just Buffalo, and the UB Poetry Collection.
