Note By Note: The Making of Steinway L1037

The process of creating a concert grand piano, from forest floor to concert hall, spans 12 months, 12,000 parts, 450 craftsmen, and countless hours of fine-tuned labor. Ben Niles' independent documentary will inspire your return the next night for a piano concert, made possible by the Yvar Mikhashoff Trust for New Music with a Steinway concert grand sponsored by Denton Cottier & Daniels of Getzville, NY. 2007, 80 min.

ATTN ALL VISUAL ARTISTS, COLLECTORS, + DONORS

UB Arts Management Program, Hallwalls, & Albright-Knox Art Gallery join forces to present an informative panel on existing and changing federal tax laws for all donors of art works to nonprofit museums, including not only collectors, but also artists who donate their own work. Featured presenter is Washington advocate Andy Finch, Co-Director of Government Affairs for the Association of Art Museum Directors, a lobbyist on such issues as tax deductibility of gifts of art, nonprofit governance, and federal funding.
